TASTING NOTES Intense color. Blue hints with violet hues characteristic of a complex, intense Bonarda. Fresh light and quite fragrant, floral aromas and rather spicy. Fresh blackberry on the palate, easy and light with juicy mint flavors. Long and with great body and presence in the mouth. Mild tannins and rounded mouth on the finish.

WINERY INFO The Mayol family has three estate vineyards, all between 3100 to 4000 ft. above sea level. Pedro Juan Mayol, a Spanish immigrant to Argentina, was a grape grower in the early nineteen hundreds and today his family carries on the tradition. They believe in showing the character of each of their unique vineyards by producing single-vineyard wines in limited quantity. They recently began to work with Steve Clifton of Palmina and Brewer-Clifton fame from Santa Barbara, California.
